

BRAVURA ePASS

Bravura ePASS turns superannuation funds' employer contribution processing into an automated and accurate activity. The tool addresses errors at the source, eliminating the delays and risks that come with high volume batch processing or complex scheme rules.

Bravura ePASS instantly validates contribution information as it is uploaded by employers and delivers it directly into the registry system. This ensures firms are always using the most accurate information possible without needing teams to manually move data, reconcile or investigate inaccuracies.

The platform includes an integrated clearing house module that automates contribution allocation for 'choice' super products, ensuring full compliance and comprehensive support for all employer-sponsored members.

BENEFITS

Receive accurate data

Automatically validating all contribution entries reduces employer, and employee, queries while removing the need for large issue resolution teams.

Customer service

Easy to use system provides accurate, real-time account information to employers.

Deploy with ease

Interoperable web portal and data transformation capabilities map employer payroll data from your preferred system in the correct format.

Accelerate onboarding

Quickly add new funds and members regardless of benefit structures, contribution rules or internal system configurations.

Automate allocation and compliance

Integrated clearing house matches contributions to choice products.

STRENGTHEN EMPLOYER ENGAGEMENT AND IMPROVE RETENTION

Bravura ePASS assists your fund by strengthening employer engagement and improving retention. The flexible, web portal can be tailored to fit any type of retirement offering your employers provide to their members. It automatically validates all contribution information before it is sent moving you to a touch-free data ingestion environment.

FEATURES

Member data validation

Automatically identify errors for employers to address and ensure information is processed within the mandated timeframe.

Online portal

Secure, always-on interface gives employers the flexibility to upload and review employee contribution data at their convenience helping to ensure timely, accurate submissions without disrupting other business priorities.

Programmable system can personalise and target all employer communications easing the administrative burden at key times of the month and year.

Clearing service

Submit contribution information for both default and employee-selected funds. All 'choice' super product contributions are handled by QuickSuper.

Support for any fund

In line with SuperStream legislation, give your employers the ability to send contributions to any fund using the ePASS clearing house service. Alerts: Automatically inform employer teams of missed deadlines and data errors.

Auditable

All system interactions are monitored, from general interactions to change management, so that you can track changes, errors and unwind major issues more easily.
